

WHITFIELD PARISH

St James' Church † St Luke's Church

LIFE Group Notes for w/b Sunday 21st March 2010

The Kingdom of God: Kingdom Fully Come

- 1) As we come to the last week of our series on the Kingdom of God, spend some time reflecting on what you've heard over these weeks. What has been new to you or caused you to see things differently?

Read Revelation 21.1-5

- 2) The last chapters of Revelation show God's Kingdom fully come to earth. According to these verses, what will be the differences between our present experience and our future in God's Kingdom?

Read Revelation 21.22-22.5

- 3) The last chapters of Revelation picture restored worship, restored community and restored creation. Where do you see these themes in the passages you've read? If you want to, spend some time considering how these themes occur throughout the Bible.
- 4) What might this incredible picture in Revelation mean for us today?
- 5) In the light of our reflections of the Kingdom of God, can you bring together the things you've heard into a short phrase which describes the Kingdom of God? What does it mean to be Kingdom people, both looking to the future and living in the present?

WHITFIELD PARISH

St James' Church † St Luke's Church

LIFE Group Notes for w/b Sunday 21st March 2010

The Kingdom of God: Kingdom Fully Come

- 1) As we come to the last week of our series on the Kingdom of God, spend some time reflecting on what you've heard over these weeks. What has been new to you or caused you to see things differently?

Read Revelation 21.1-5

- 2) The last chapters of Revelation show God's Kingdom fully come to earth. According to these verses, what will be the differences between our present experience and our future in God's Kingdom?

Read Revelation 21.22-22.5

- 3) The last chapters of Revelation picture restored worship, restored community and restored creation. Where do you see these themes in the passages you've read? If you want to, spend some time considering how these themes occur throughout the Bible.
- 4) What might this incredible picture in Revelation mean for us today?
- 5) In the light of our reflections of the Kingdom of God, can you bring together the things you've heard into a short phrase which describes the Kingdom of God? What does it mean to be Kingdom people, both looking to the future and living in the present?